FROM THE COMMANDER... Wow! What an exciting end to the year! As I write this, the Packers have won against the Texans here in Green Bay and so everything is right in the world. Everything is doing well here at the Post too. As a matter of fact, I'm so grateful to the membership, the Sons and our Auxiliary, that I think it's time to celebrate a bit. This year we accomplished a big ticket item in our upgrade of the A/C units. Today, we held an Eagle Scout Court of Honor and we were privileged to host not only the Scout, his family, Troop and friends, but State Senators Andre Jacque and Eric Wimberger. The Senators took time from their Schedules to present the Scout with a plaque signed by the leaders of the State Senate and an American Flag that was flown over the State Capital.

Another huge undertaking was completed when we conducted our first (in recent history) Meat Raffle. I would be very remiss if I did not recognize the Herculean effort put forth by Rick Young and his team in making this a resounding success. Team members involved in this were: Judy Smits, Mike Duggan, CJ Kellner, Suzy Beck, Gwen Greene, Curt Moede, John Hoes, Terry Quatsoe, Mary Van Egren, Keith Garland and Mary Kaczmarek. Without their help in running this event, we would still be doing it today. The last number I saw, it looked like we earned around $4,000.00 for our Capitol Improvement fund. Lastly, I've got to thank Simonet's Bar and the Simonet family as well as all our donors for the prizes and baskets.

Thanks for everything you do to make this post a success and let's have a very happy and safe holiday season. Bill Kaczmarek

40 et 8: Promenades for both months have been postponed for the Holidays. See you on January 15th, 2025 at 7:30pm at Post 11
